

Compare your spine and the connections to your organs with the wiring in your home from the electrical box to all the appliances. The Electrical box would be your spine, and the appliances, all your organs.

